

My trip to Italy

Day 1st (Monday)

There were seven people who took part in our trip: Ms. Marzena, Ms. Katarzyna, Oskar, Tomek, Wiktoria, Dominica and me. Our group met at about 6:45 a.m. at Kolumba Street. We said goodbye to our parents and got on a coach. About 9:30 a.m. we arrived at the airport in Berlin- Schönefeld. At 12:45 o'clock we had a plane, so we had to wait for our flight. In the meantime, we ate breakfast and talked. After a couple hours, we finally got on the plane to Milan - Bergamo. All of us were very excited. We landed about 14:30. At the airport an Italian teacher, Ms. Simona, was waiting for our group. We went to McDonalds' fast food restaurant, and ate lunch there. Then, we took a bus to San Pellegrino Terme. After about 45 minutes, we arrived at the hotel, where we met students from other partnership schools. Next we met our host families and went with them to their houses. About 19 o'clock we all met at the youth parish club and ate dinner with students and teachers from other countries and host families. After dinner, we went out of the building. The boys played football and the girls talked at the playground. In the late evening we came back to our families houses and went to sleep. It was a very busy, but pleasant day!

Day 2nd (Tuesday)

We all met at 8 a.m. in Pellegrino Terme Secondary School. We got there with children from our host families by bus. When everybody arrived, we came into the school. The small children prepared a song about Arlecchino (Arlekin) and sang it for us. After that, we got on our coach and went to Dossena. We visited primary and secondary schools there. Small children sang a song and we took a photo with them. Next we went to the school. Students from there played something on xylophones. After that we saw a beautiful church. Then boys played football and girls talked and took photos with other students. About 11:30 a.m. we said goodbye to our meet friends and came back to San Pellegrino Terme where we ate a delicious, traditional, Italian pizza. After meal, we visited the city authorities and saw "Casino". After that we met our host families and got back home with them.

Day 3rd (Wednesday)

We met at 8 o'clock in the school's yard. We waited for everyone and got on the coach and went to Milan. About 1:30 hour later we arrived there. As soon as we got off the coach we started sightseeing. First, we saw St. Ambrogio's church. Next we visited Duomo, it was amazing! Then we went to the Gallerii Vittorio Emanuele II. There were a lot of famous shops like Prada or Gucci. We ate Panzerotti and the oldest ice cream in the city, "Savini". Next, we saw Piazza alla Scala. After that went to the subway and took an underground train to AC Milan stadium. We bought some souvenirs from Milan and we came back to San Pellegrino Terme. We arrived there at about 19. 00. Our host families took us to houses and we ate dinner and then played together. It was a busy but fantastic day.

My trip to Italy

Day 4th (Thursday)

All groups met at 8 o'clock. After few minutes we went to Parish Youth Club to watch a play "World in our Dreams" prepared by the Italian students. It was great! After that, we came back to San Pellegrino School. We went to art lessons and made albums for our moms with some help of Italian students. At 13:30 o'clock we ate dinner and went to Bergamo. We took a cable train to Inner City where we walked along the narrow Medieval streets of the Old Town, visited Cathedral and Piazza Vecchia. After sightseeing, we got on the coach and came back to San Pellegrino Terme. We went to the hotel and ate a supper there. During the meal, we were talking with other students and tasted traditional Italian food: roast rabbit, veal and beef, polenta, risotto and ravioli. After dinner, we took part in a certificate giving ceremony. Then we had to say goodbye to the teachers and students from other countries. After that, we came back to our host families houses. Everyone was very sad that night.

Day 5th (Friday)

Our group met at 4 o'clock near the teachers hotel. We said goodbye to our host families and got on the bus. We travelled to Bergamo Orio al Serio Caravaggio airport in Milan. We had a flight at 6:30 a.m. When we got on the plane, everyone from our trip felt asleep. About 8:30 a.m. we landed in Berlin. We took our luggage and got on a shuttle bus to Szczecin. At about 11:30 a.m. we arrived at Kolumba street. Our parents were waiting for us. It was the end of our fantastic Comenius trip to Italy.
